

Do Not implement any proposal to lessen Indiana Telephone Privacy. My home time has been so much more enjoyable due to the elimination of unwanted and unappreciated phone calls. I always have and always will refuse to buy anything from these unwanted calls even if it was something I could use or would donate to under other circumstances. All donations I give are my own decision and will not be influenced by a overbearing telemarketer. Thank you